

LPA Realtor Notice

Long Pond Association is not a home owners association. It is a private, members-only recreational association. Membership is strictly limited to geographic boundaries around Long Pond and is currently closed with a long waiting list. While eligible for membership, homeowners within the boundaries are not encumbered with dues, rules or regulations that relate to Long Pond Association until they become members. While homeowners within the Long Pond boundaries are eligible for membership they are not required to join the association.
